THE COURTS.

WRITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT-EASTERN DISTRICT. illeged Fraudulent Whiskey Bond Opera-tions-Arrest and Arraignment of Colonel Richr,rd C. Enright on the Charge of Pre-parting and Executing the Bonds-He is Held Bail in the Sum of $20,000. Before Judge Benedict.

Among the cases which were brought before the last Jury empanelled in the United States Distract Court for the Eastern District of New York was that of mel Richard C. Enright, a well known resident ested and caused to be made and executed certain false, dulent and counterfeit bonds which wer to be used in fraud of the Internal Revenue laws." The Grand Jury, after hav-Revenue laws." The Grand Jury, after hav-ing investigated the case, found an indictment against Colonel Euright and a certain collector and deputy collectors.

against Colonei Euright and a certain collector and deputy collector in Brooklyn who have been brought rather prominently before the public during the past few months, and who also in this case are charged with having accepted and approved of the frauducial bonds alleged to have been prepared and executed by Esright, as the same time knowing that they were worthless.

From this indetinest it appears that there were live bonds for sums amounting in the aggregate to $98,000 presented to the said certain collector and deputy collector for their approval, and that they approved of the same without making the proper inquiries as to whether the surctices were responsible parties or not. The bonds were for parties about to enter into the business of shailing whisker, but whose names the authorities, for vessons of their own, do not desire at present to banke public. The indictment further sets forth that these honds were executed and approved on the days designated as follows:—May 21, 1867, one for $22,000; May 22, two, for $25,000 and $1,800; June 4, one for $15,000. Another bond for $18,000 was also approved, but upon what day the indictment does not as forth as alleged, they have all proved to be utterly worthless, ahe sureties either being parties whose identity was not anown to any one, or who were comparaturely poor men.

On Tuesday last the Grand Jury presented this indictment against colonel Enright, among a number of others, and on motion of Assistant District Attorney Allen is was arreated by Deputy Marshal Higgins.

His Arannamar.

At the opening of the court yesterday at noon Mr. Allen moved the arrangement of the accused upon the indictment.

Colonel Enright, through his counsei, Mr. William

Colonel Enright, through his counsel, Mr. William

Colonel Enright, through his counsel, Mr. William Hollis, entered a plas of not guilty.

The Court inquired of Mr. Allen as to what amount of hall would be required.

Mr. Allen replied $20,000.

Mr. Hollis thought that this was too large an amount, and suggested $10,000.

Mr. Allen—Of course, we only desire hall sufficient to cause the appearance of the prisoner for trial. This cause is similar to the others—meaning the Califorticases—in which the ball has been fixed at a higher flavor.

Court—I desire to fix bail for all parties alike, i are able to procure ball, but I do not desire to fi The court—I courte bail, but I do not desire to fix bail any higher than is proper in the case, I ask if there is any difficulty in getting larger bail?

Mr. Hollis—I presume my client can get it.

The Court—I will fix it then at that amount ($20,000), and if it cannot be obtained you have liberty to apply for a reduction upon showing that it is higher than can be procured.

or a reduction upon snowing that it is higher than can be procured. Colonel Enright subsequently appeared before Commissioner Newton and justified in two suroties for $20,000 such. No day has yet been fixed for the trial. COLONEL EXEGUTY'S DEFENCE.

Colonel Euright denies in tot that he is guilty of fraud in the matter, and claims that District Attorney fracy procured his undictment, knowing that he was an important witness for the defence in the Callicott case. He also claims that the sureties to the bonds referred to merely appeared before him as a notary public, and that they swore they were worth the amounts mentioned in the bonds. The case, connected as it is with the pending tria gainst ex-Collector Callicott, together with the fact that colonel Enright is widely known and very popular mong the Brookity people, has excited considerable nomment, and will add very much to the interest with which the Callicott trial, fixed for Monday next, is socked forward to.

engaged in the dry goods business at No. 198 E. D., and sued to recover damages in the $10,000 for an alleged libel upon his character. appears that in the summer of 1865 the plaintiff was Phelan, with whom he previously had some trouble rring a number of purchases she made at his.
The following week a pictorial sheet contained a y colored account of the affair, accompanied large woodcut representing the young woman in ct of castigating the plaintiff. About a year subsette this, the defendant, who is a business rival of quent to this, the defendant, who is a business rival of the plaintiff near the store of the latter, can the picture of the cowhiding out of the paper and exposed it in the front window of his own establishment, at the same time appending Baer's name to it, so as to bring the picture into greater publicity. In consequence of this action on the part of Bail, plaintiff claimed that he sustained damages to character and business to the above amount.

e amount, motion for a non-suit made by counsel for defence

A motion for a non-suit made by counsel for defence, on the ground that plaintiff's pleadings did not state that the picture was untrue, was denied.

The defonce claimed that the publications were true, and further alleged that the plaintiff had been in the habit of imposing upon the public, and had overcharged Miss Pholan, besides calling her names. Mrs. Minnis Perrest, sie Pholan, who is a handsome young woman, of tadylike manners was called to the stand, testified as fo the cowhiding, &c., and added that the picture in the paper was about as good a one as it was possible for any person to make who had not witnessed the affair. Her testim any excited the spectrors in the court room to faughts r, and greatly amused the jury.

The . udge charged the jury that the case amounted to a lit el, and stated that the only question for them to deten nine was as to the amount of damages to be awarded.

The jusy rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff, messaing and damages at $200.

L'ROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

PROBABLE FATAL SHOOTING AGREET,-A melancholy accident occur, ed about ten o'clock yesterday morning, which, it ist feared, will prove fatal to the injured man. From the facts elicited it appears that a young follow named Thomas Whalen entered the liquor stere of Patrick Rogers, corner of Van Brunt and Partition streets, South Breoklyn, about the time above mentioned, and asked the hartender, Walter mentioned, ast asked the hartender, Walter Bhay, with whom he was acquainted, to buy a pateol which he exhibited. Shay, who is young man obein ignorant of the use of such a weapon, requested Whaten to explain the mode of using it. Thus the lacter was in the act of doing when the placed, which is four barrelled, went off accidentally, the builet entering near the heart of the unfortunate Shay, and inflicting a wound which, in the opinion of the medical men in attractance on aim, miss necessarily prove fatal. The bail glanced downwarf and lodged in the stomach, which has brought on a homorrhage. Young Shay was conveyed to the City Hospital, and while there made the following ante-mortem statement:—I reside at the corner of Yan Brunt and Carrell streets; am a kartender by occupation, and work for Estrick Storers, about ten schook this moraling, while attending to my duties behind the tar, a young man named Thomas Waylen came into the store; he offered to seed a pistot, and attempted to show me show it worked, being ignorant of how it did work; I tried it and he tried it, Lawrence Kinsella was also in the store at the time; when Thomas Whalen showed me for the second time the pistol weni off, and I was shot in the heart; I have known the prisoner few morality, and have never had any difficulty with him. If was also in the misery whit the he had wrought. He was already arrested and held to awail the result of the injuries inflicted.

HENRY WARD BEECHER ON THE SITUATION OF The SOUTH.

Last Sunday I told you I wished you to take up a collection to day for the Ladies Aid branch of the Southern Relief Society. This department of the work, though it has the same bent as the main association in New York, still, in its detail, follows a line of operation which well appeals to our groundly administered are such as collection to the property of the commonest secasaries of life, it may, perhaps, be also the case that those instances in which relief is most frequently administered are such as belong among the coorest and lowest, perhaps, irrespective of color. But there are thousands of persons who have been brought up in affinence, used always to give out to was resulted to the such that the summary of the summary of the accusest sensibility of the bighest coliure, of the most unbounded hospitality in times past, their case now is even more pittable than the adversity of those used to vigorous life, disciplined to suffering and to whom coarse fare is congenial. Many of them are too Droud to declare their need, and there is a yort of heroism and no-billity in their retience. The bravest soldier often suffers, yea, dies under and yet conceals with his mantile the very existence of any wound. New it is to retieve these that I call upon you this morning. They cannot all be reached—some must die. But many can be saved. They are the brains of the South. They possess the affection and control of its citizens. Any aid we give them in such a way is not to wound their sensibility, or to be them feel that we feel we are helping them, will be twice blessed: It will coment their hearts to ourse it will assure them an understanding of our spirit is an includes. My sister, Mrs. Stowe, has just returned from a two months? Journey in Florida and Georgia. I list them as she told them to me, New, brethren, if you say that thesee were the lengters and eliefs of rebellion and are suffering th
